My early life was like most 90s people. I spent most of my time playing video games on NES, Sega, PS One, PS 2, and PSP. Until the time I wondered how games were created leading me to attend a 3 years Software Engineer degree in Vocational High School

Years later I landed a job as front-end engineer at one of the biggest tech companies in Indonesia (Telkom Indonesia)

I am a diligent person, sociable, detailed, results-oriented, LOVE to learn something new and sometimes write to track my journey
